“A friend of mine picked up a deck of cards and said he was going to show me a faro trick. I took out a gun and shot him.”
Charlie Miller - The Pallbearers Review, Volume 5 No.1, page 292

“I had a funny nightmare the other night. Dreamed I was in hell where the burning coals were really four ace tricks and the demons were evil little men constantly in the midst of faro shuffles.”

Charlie Miller: Genii December 1964

899 Hine Hue Control (Ron Ferris): red black shuffle card control
899 Apocalypse Variations or Additions: Non Faro Faro tip

961 Apocalypse Vol 7 No 9 Sept 1984
967 RG Location (Richard Goldshot): card location using crimps and a perfect faro

1045 Apocalypse Vol 8 No 4 April 85
1049 Enlarged Hartman (Charles M. Hudson): variation of Hartman’s Order Restored; requires perfect straddle faros with a 53 card deck

1465 Apocalypse Vol 11 No 3 March 1988
1473 Blown Away Plus (Edward Marlo): variation of Tamariz’ Blown Away. Requires perfect faro

1597 Apocalypse Vol 12 No 2 Feb 1989 All Card Issue
1604 Perpetual Calendar (Richard Vollmer): using the calendar to find the card (straddle faro)

1609 Apocalypse Vol 12 No 3 March 1989
1611 Twice Nice (Robert Gardner): Marlo’s incomplete faro location used to locate two selections

1741 Apocalypse Vol 13 No 2 Feb 1990 Special All Card Issue
1744 A Couple of Tears (Bob King): a four Ace trick requiring one hand 2nd deal and decent faro

1789 Apocalypse Vol 13 No 6 June 1990

Dani DaOrtiz and Christian Engblom DVD: !Que Raro! that teaches the Anti-Faro.

In the Anti-Faro you spring the cards from hand to hand from a very short distance and every other card jogs slightly. This allows you to strip out the jogged cards, and essentially reverses the action of a Faro Shuffle.
